Lecture Series

The proposed series of lectures by outstanding speakers who are invited on campus to speak has been approved by Dr. Ganus. The following provisions were given the SA in securing the lecturers.

1. The administration shall ^{have} adequate control in the selection of speakers because of their wiser and more experienced judgement. Also, the SA of some years may not be as responsible as in other years. The administration feels it best knows the type of speakers best fit to speak on Harding campus.

2. Before bringing up the selection of possible speakers to the SA, the President of the SA and another member are to see Dr. Ganus with the list of possible speakers for his approval.
3. In securing the speakers, the SA and administration are to invite the lecturers to campus together.
4. This program is to be connected with the American Studies Program as much as possible.

Miscellaneous

The FM radio has been repaired by Parker Gunn, reported Mike. The cost of the parts cost only $8.00.

GI gifts were mailed today for $40.00 postage.

It was reported that a list of club presidents for the semester has been composed by Richard Davis and made available.

Homecoming

Alumni-The Council had previously voted to have a special sign of welcome for the alumni on Homecoming. Carolyn Medearis investigated the possibility having a permanent sign made by the newly formed Art Club. It would cost the SA $11.00 for the needed supplies and $10.00 for the labor. The total cost would be $21.00. It was agreed that a nice sign was definitely needed for such occasions as Homecoming and a permanent sign certainly would be most, most convenient to have. Dave Young moved to commission the Art Club to make a permanent sign of welcome for the alumni. Such a sign would hang from the entrance railing. It would definitely have a professional look and be durable for its continued use. Mary K Walker seconded the motion on the floor. After the motion carried, Mike relayed that he would try to get assistance from the Alumni Office in the finance of the sign.

Chili Supper-Gailyn requested that the workers who include all the Council and their dates be out at Wyldewood at 4:30, Friday afternoon ready to set up the food and to serve. It was decided to ink out the numbers on the meal tickets instead of punching them out with a metal puncher. The Council suggested to Mike that he have it announced in chapel that the faculty and off-campus students are welcome, but they must bring 75¢ to pay for their meal. It was decided to also announce to the students the necessity of their bringing their own bowl and spoon to eat the chili.

Chapel Program-Mary K suggested that the swinging chapel doors be oiled because of their loud squeaking. Judy revealed her plans to pass out the Homecoming programs on Friday after each chapel period because they outline the Homecoming activities beginning on Friday afternoon.

Advertising-Mike reported that the Homecoming activities had been advertised extensively through town radio, newspaper, and posters, and through campus radio, BISON, and posters, plus through necessary chapel announcements.

Burning of the Major-Rick Harris is in charge of the burial procession and burning of the tattered dead Major at the Pep Rally.

Devotional-The burning of the cross is to be taken by Mike Frampton as his project.

Entertainment-Hank McDaniel is obtaining entertainment for the Chili Supper. The Council suggested using loud entertainers, such as the FOUR FRATERS, for the sound to carry over the students as they are served and eat. A PA system will be set up by Hank.

SA Float-Chairman Sam Hester presented his problem of not being able to find the proper puller of the float. The Council suggested;

1. Having two torn up looking Majors driving a jeep pulling the float.
2. Having Boys dressed up in uniforms (military) to pull the float manually.

Mike requested Dave Young to assist Sam with the remainder of the float work.

Half-time-Marvin Robinson is taking care of the details in the crowning the queen. SA is awaiting a call from Rodger Maddox, one of last year's captains, in response to the request of his crowning the new queen. If Rodger cannot make the trip, The Council agreed to ask Dr. Ganus to have this honor.

Time Schedule-Mike requested all chairmen of Homecoming projects to turn in a time schedule of their activities to him so he can make a master schedule for reference.

Pigskin Prediction Contest-Dave Young brought up the contest the Council had voted to hold during a previous meeting for a Homecoming activity. The group accepted Dave's suggestions to have two separate contests, one for the girls and one for the boys. The score and the BISON'S total number of first downs are to be guessed . Among the suggestions for the prizes were;

Free movie pass
An engraved football
Money($5)

The majority of the group thought the money to be the more appealing prize.
